

JUDGE KATE A. TOOMEY

Judge Kate A. Toomey took the oath of office in January 2007 after her appointment to the Third District Court by Gov. Jon M. Huntsman, Jr. She serves Salt Lake, Summit, and Tooele counties. Judge Toomey received a law degree from the University of Maryland in 1991, then served as a judicial law clerk with the Maryland Court of Special Appeals, after which she joined the Maryland Public Defender's Office. In 1993, Judge Toomey became an associate with the Salt Lake City law firm Anderson & Karrenberg until 1996, when she joined the Utah State Bar's Office of Professional Conduct, eventually serving as Deputy Counsel. Judge Toomey was the managing editor of the "University of Maryland Law Review," the managing editor, then editor-in-chief of "Voir Dire," and a member of the Executive Committee of the Utah Bar Journal. Judge Toomey serves as a member of the Utah Supreme Court Appellate Rules Advisory Committee and its Advisory Committee on Professionalism. She was elected to the Board of District Court Judges in 2009. Judge Toomey is a board member of the Utah Foster Care Foundation and serves on its Executive Committee. She is a member of the David K. Watkiss-Sutherland II Inns of Court. 9/09
