

Lee Saber

Of Counsel

Lee Saber is Chair of Van Cott's Technology and Entrepreneurial Services Group. Mr. Saber works closely with inventors, entrepreneurs, and growth enterprises in order to enhance the value of their strategic business relationships and maximize the return on their technology and commercial assets.

Mr. Saber advises entrepreneurs and companies from the inception of an idea to end-stage liquidity events. He provides strategic counsel in the creation, protection, acquisition, and commercialization of technology and business assets. Mr. Saber has extensive experience in complex partnering and technology transactions for a wide range of information technology, digital media, gaming, renewable energy, and nutraceutical companies. His practice includes: strategic intellectual property asset purchases and sales, technology mergers, acquisitions and spin-offs, and technology litigation settlement agreements. Mr. Saber has worked with many of Utah and Silicon Valley's most prominent entrepreneurs.

Mr. Saber also has extensive experience defending international accounting firms in complex litigation and regulatory proceedings, as well as SEC, PCAOB, DOJ and FTC enforcement actions. In 2005, Mr. Saber represented a Big Four accounting firm in an action brought by a bankruptcy trustee alleging claims of fraud, deepening insolvency and accounting malpractice. The Court entered summary judgment in favor of Mr. Saber's client, and dismissed all claims with prejudice.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Saber practiced law in the Texas offices of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati PC, and was the Hiring Partner in the Salt Lake City office of Howrey, LLP.

Professional Affiliations

American Intellectual Property Law Association
Computer and Technology Law Section, State Bar of Texas

Education

Bowdoin College/Harvard University, A.B. (1994)
Yale University, advanced coursework in molecular biology
The University of Texas School of Law, J.D. (1998)

Admitted to Practice

Utah
Texas

Awards

Community Affiliations

The Junior League of Salt Lake City
Salt Lake City Sports Complex, Board Member

Office Location

Salt Lake City
(801) 237-0218

Email

lsaber@vancott.com