

Gabriel White

Candidate for President-Elect
Young Lawyers Division

Biography

Gabriel White graduated from the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law in 2007. He practices general litigation at the law firm of Christensen & Jensen, P.C. He was named as one of Utah's 2010 "Legal Elite" by Utah Business magazine in the area of business litigation and was named a Rising Star by Mountain States Super Lawyers magazine for 2009, also in the area of business litigation. Gabriel is married to Wendy White, and they have one daughter, Persephone.

Qualifications

Gabriel has a history of participation in the Young Lawyers Division that provides the necessary experience for this position. In 2009, he founded the Wednesday Night Bar program to provide free legal services to underprivileged members of Utah's Spanish speaking community. Since that time, Gabriel has assisted dozens of people with legal questions. Associated with the popular Tuesday Night Bar program, Wednesday Night Bar serves members of the community who need free legal advice but who do not speak English or are otherwise unable to attend Tuesday Night Bar. Wednesday Night Bar is held twice a month at the Sorenson Unity Center.

Platform

Gabriel believes that the Young Lawyers Division has a responsibility to serve Utah's younger attorneys by providing programs and guidance that will help them achieve their professional goals. During these difficult economic times, it is important for the Young Lawyers Division to reach out to unemployed or underemployed attorneys, and help them find the tools to succeed. Public service is an important part of fulfilling these responsibilities, and the Young Lawyers Division has a great role to play in serving the community. If elected, Gabriel will support programs that are tailored to attain these goals.
