Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I have just finished reading the discipline corner, and you wonder why we have such demoralizing lawyer jokes. The discipline I read about in the March issue of the Bar Journal is about as big a joke as one would want to see in the Bar Journal: Attorney retained by client, attorney does nothing and won't communicate with client . . . Admonition; Conflict of interest, notice of lien etc . . . Admonition; and overdrawn trust account, and two prior cautions . . . Admonition. You have got to be kidding.

With this kind of protection of the public I should start a class action against the Bar on behalf of us attorneys that pay for such incompetent discipline. Or are these attorneys a part of the "Good Old Boys Club?" I hope the public doesn't read this section of the Journal.
