Submission of Articles for the Utah Bar Journal

The Utah Bar Journal encourages Bar members to submit articles for publication. The following are a few guidelines for preparing your submission.

1. Length: The editorial staff prefers articles having no more than 3,000 words. If you cannot reduce your article to that length, consider dividing it into a "Part 1" and "Part 2" for publication in successive issues.
2. Format: Submit a hard copy and an electronic copy in Microsoft Word or WordPerfect format.
3. Endnotes: Articles may have endnotes, but the editorial staff discourages their use. The Bar Journal is not a Law Review, and the staff seeks articles of practical interest to attorneys and members of the bench. Subjects requiring substantial notes to convey their content may be more suitable for another publication.

4. Content: Articles should address the Bar Journal audience, which is composed primarily of licensed Bar members. The broader the appeal of your article, the better. Nevertheless, the editorial staff sometimes considers articles on narrower topics. If you are in doubt about the suitability of your article for publication, the editorial staff invites you to submit it for evaluation.

5. Editing: Any article submitted to the Bar Journal may be edited for citation style, length, grammar, and punctuation. Content is the author's responsibility—the editorial staff merely determines whether the article should be published.

6. Citation Format: All citations should at least attempt to follow The Bluebook format.

7. Authors: Submit a sentence identifying your place of employment. Photographs are discouraged, but may be submitted and will be considered for use, depending on available space.
