189 78B-21-106. Appointment of receiver.

190 (1) The court may appoint a receiver:

191 (a) before judgment, to protect a party that demonstrates an apparent right, title, or 192 interest in real property that is the subject of the action, if the property or the property's 193 revenue-producing potential:

194 (i) is being subjected to or is in danger of waste, loss, dissipation, or impairment; or

203 or foreclosure sale and secure the property's rents to the person entitled to the property's rents.

204 (2) In connection with the foreclosure or other enforcement of a mortgage, a mortgagee 205 is entitled to appointment of a receiver for the mortgaged property if:

206 (a) appointment is necessary to protect the property from waste, loss, transfer,
207 dissipation, or impairment;

208 (b) the mortgagor agreed in a signed record to appointment of a receiver on default;

209 (c) the owner agreed, after default and in a signed record, to appointment of a receiver;

211 satisfy the secured obligation;

212 (e) the owner fails to turn over to the mortgagee proceeds or rents the mortgagee was 213 entitled to collect; or

214 (f) the holder of a subordinate lien obtains appointment of a receiver for the property.

215 (3) (a) The court may condition appointment of a receiver without prior notice under 216 Subsection 78B-21-103(2)(a) or without a prior hearing under Subsection 78B-21-103(2)(b) on 217 the giving of security by the person seeking the appointment for the payment of damages,
218 reasonable attorney fees, and costs incurred or suffered by any person if the court later
219 concludes that the appointment was not justified.

220 (b) If the court later concludes that the appointment described in Subsection (3)(a) was 221 justified, the court shall release the security.

222 Section 7. Section 78B-21-107 is enacted to read:

223 78B-21-107. Disqualification from appointment as receiver -- Disclosure of 226 court a statement under penalty of perjury that the person is not disqualified.

228 appointment as receiver if the person:

234 (e) holds an equity interest in a party, other than a noncontrolling interest in a
235 publicly-traded company.

238 (a) was appointed receiver or is owed compensation in an unrelated matter involving a 239 party or was engaged by a party in a matter unrelated to the receivership;

240 (b) is an individual obligated to a party on a debt that is not in default and was incurred
241 primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; or

242 (c) maintains with a party a deposit account as defined in Section 70A-9a-102.

243 (4) A person seeking appointment of a receiver may nominate a person to serve as 244 receiver, but the court is not bound by the nomination.

246 78B-21-108. Receiver's bond -- Alternative security.

247 (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (1)(b), a receiver shall post with the 248 court a bond that:

250 (b) has one or more sureties approved by the court;

251 (c) is in an amount the court specifies; and 252 (d) is effective as of the date of the receiver's appointment.

253 (2) (a) The court may approve the posting by a receiver with the court of alternative 254 security, such as a letter of credit or deposit of funds.

255 (b) The receiver may not use receivership property as alternative security.

256 (c) Interest that accrues on deposited funds must be paid to the receiver on the 257 receiver's discharge.

258 (3) The court may authorize a receiver to act before the receiver posts the bond or 259 alternative security required by this section.

260 (4) A claim against a receiver's bond or alternative security must be made not later than 261 one year after the date the receiver is discharged.

263 78B-21-109. Status of receiver as lien creditor.

264 On appointment of a receiver, the receiver has the status of a lien creditor under:

265 (1) Title 70A, Chapter 9a, Uniform Commercial Code - Secured Transactions, as to

271 Except as otherwise provided by law of this state other than this chapter, property that a
272 receiver or owner acquires after appointment of the receiver is subject to a security agreement 273 entered into before the appointment to the same extent as if the court had not appointed the 274 receiver.

275 Section 11. Section 78B-21-111 is enacted to read:

276 78B-21-111. Collection and turnover of receivership property.

277 (1) Unless the court orders otherwise, on demand by a receiver:

278 (a) a person that owes a debt that is receivership property and is matured or payable on 279 demand or on order shall pay the debt to or on the order of the receiver, except to the extent the 280 debt is subject to setoff or recoupment; and

281 (b) subject to Subsection (3), a person that has possession, custody, or control of 282 receivership property shall turn the property over to the receiver.

283 (2) A person that has notice of the appointment of a receiver and owes a debt that is 284 receivership property may not satisfy the debt by payment to the owner.

285 (3) If a creditor has possession, custody, or control of receivership property and the 286 validity, perfection, or priority of the creditor's lien on the property depends on the creditor's 287 possession, custody, or control, the creditor may retain possession, custody, or control until the 288 court orders adequate protection of the creditor's lien.

289 (4) Unless a bona fide dispute exists about a receiver's right to possession, custody, or 290 control of receivership property, the court may sanction as civil contempt a person's failure to 291 turn the property over when required by this section.

292 Section 12. Section 78B-21-112 is enacted to read:

293 78B-21-112. Powers and duties of receiver.

374 against the owner that arose before entry of the order.

375 (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4), the court may enjoin an act, action, 376 or proceeding against or relating to receivership property if the injunction is necessary to 377 protect the property or facilitate administration of the receivership.

378 (3) A person whose act, action, or proceeding is stayed or enjoined under this section
379 may apply to the court for relief from the stay or injunction for cause.

380 (4) An order under Subsection (1) or (2) does not operate as a stay or injunction of:

381 (a) an act, action, or proceeding to foreclose or otherwise enforce a mortgage by the 382 person seeking appointment of the receiver;

383 (b) an act, action, or proceeding to perfect, or maintain or continue the perfection of, an
384 interest in receivership property;

385 (c) commencement or continuation of a criminal proceeding;

386 (d) commencement or continuation of an action or proceeding, or enforcement of a 387 judgment other than a money judgment in an action or proceeding, by a governmental unit to 388 enforce the governmental unit's police or regulatory power; or

389 (e) establishment by a governmental unit of a tax liability against the owner or 390 receivership property or an appeal of the liability.

391 (5) The court may void an act that violates a stay or injunction under this section.

392 (6) If a person knowingly violates a stay or injunction under this section, the court may:

393 (a) award actual damages caused by the violation, reasonable attorney fees, and costs;

394 and

395 (b) sanction the violation as civil contempt.

396 Section 15. Section 78B-21-115 is enacted to read:

397 78B-21-115. Engagement and compensation of professional.

398 (1) (a) With court approval, a receiver may engage an attorney, accountant, appraiser,
399 auctioneer, broker, or other professional to assist the receiver in performing a duty or 400 exercising a power of the receiver.

401 (b) The receiver shall disclose to the court:

402 (i) the identity and qualifications of the professional;

403 (ii) the scope and nature of the proposed engagement;

404 (iii) any potential conflict of interest; and

405 (iv) the proposed compensation.

406 (2) (a) A person is not disqualified from engagement under this section solely because

407 of the person's engagement by, representation of, or other relationship with the receiver, a

408 creditor, or a party.

409 (b) This chapter does not prevent the receiver from serving in the receivership as an

410 attorney, accountant, auctioneer, or broker when authorized by law.

411 (3) (a) A receiver or professional engaged under Subsection (1) shall file with the court

412 an itemized statement of the time spent, work performed, and billing rate of each person that

413 performed the work and an itemized list of expenses.

414 (b) The receiver shall pay the amount approved by the court.

415 Section 16. Section 78B-21-116 is enacted to read:

416 78B-21-116. Use or transfer of receivership property not in ordinary course of 417 business.

418 (1) As used in this section, "good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of 419 reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

420 (2) With court approval, a receiver may use receivership property other than in the 421 ordinary course of business.

422 (3) (a) With court approval, a receiver may transfer receivership property other than in 423 the ordinary course of business by sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition.

424 (b) Unless the agreement of sale provides otherwise, a sale under this section is:

425 (i) free and clear of a lien of the person that obtained appointment of the receiver, any 426 subordinate lien, and any right of redemption; and 427 (ii) subject to a senior lien.

428 (4) A lien on receivership property that is extinguished by a transfer under Subsection

429 (3) attaches to the proceeds of the transfer with the same validity, perfection, and priority the

430 lien had on the property immediately before the transfer, even if the proceeds are not sufficient

431 to satisfy all obligations secured by the lien.

432 (5) (a) A transfer under Subsection (3) may occur by means other than a public auction 433 sale.

434 (b) A creditor holding a valid lien on the property to be transferred may purchase the 435 property and offset against the purchase price part or all of the allowed amount secured by the 436 lien, if the creditor tenders funds sufficient to satisfy in full the reasonable expenses of transfer 437 and the obligation secured by any senior lien extinguished by the transfer.

438 (6) A reversal or modification of an order approving a transfer under Subsection (3)
439 does not affect the validity of the transfer to a person that acquired the property in good faith or 440 revive against the person any lien extinguished by the transfer, whether the person knew before
441 the transfer of the request for reversal or modification, unless the court stayed the order before 442 the transfer.

443 Section 17. Section 78B-21-117 is enacted to read:

444 78B-21-117. Executory contract.

445 (1) As used in this section, "timeshare interest" means the same as that term is defined
446 in Section 57-19-2.

447 (2) (a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (8), with court approval, a receiver
448 may adopt or reject an executory contract of the owner relating to receivership property.

449 (b) The court may condition the receiver's adoption and continued performance of the 450 contract on terms appropriate under the circumstances.

451 (c) If the receiver does not request court approval to adopt or reject the executory 452 contract within a reasonable time after the receiver's appointment, the receiver is deemed to 453 have rejected the executory contract.

454 (3) A receiver's performance of an executory contract before court approval under 455 Subsection (2) of the executory contract's adoption or rejection is not an adoption of the 456 executory contract and does not preclude the receiver from seeking approval to reject the 457 executory contract.

458 (4) A provision in an executory contract that requires or permits a forfeiture,
459 modification, or termination of the executory contract because of the appointment of a receiver
460 or the financial condition of the owner does not affect a receiver's power under Subsection (2)
461 to adopt the executory contract.

462 (5) (a) A receiver's right to possess or use receivership property pursuant to an 463 executory contract terminates on rejection of the executory contract under Subsection (2).

464 (b) Rejection is a breach of the executory contract effective immediately before 465 appointment of the receiver.

466 (c) A claim for damages for rejection of the executory contract must be submitted by 467 the later of:

468 (i) the time set for submitting a claim in the receivership; or 469 (ii) 30 days after the court approves the rejection.

470 (6) If at the time a receiver is appointed, the owner has the right to assign an executory 471 contract relating to receivership property under law of this state other than this chapter, the 472 receiver may assign the executory contract with court approval.

473 (7) If a receiver rejects an executory contract for the sale of receivership property that 474 is real property in possession of the purchaser or a real-property timeshare interest under 475 Subsection (2), the purchaser may:

476 (a) treat the rejection as a termination of the executory contract, and in that case the 477 purchaser has a lien on the property for the recovery of any part of the purchase price the 478 purchaser paid; or

479 (b) retain the purchaser's right to possession under the executory contract, and in that
480 case the purchaser shall continue to perform all obligations arising under the executory contract
481 and may offset any damages caused by nonperformance of an obligation of the owner after the 482 date of the rejection, but the purchaser has no right or claim against other receivership property
483 or the receiver on account of the damages.

484 (8) A receiver may not reject an unexpired lease of real property under which the 485 owner is the landlord if:

486 (a) the tenant occupies the leased premises as the tenant's primary residence;

487 (b) the receiver was appointed at the request of a person other than a mortgagee; or

488 (c) the receiver was appointed at the request of a mortgagee and:

489 (i) the lease is superior to the lien of the mortgage;

490 (ii) the tenant has an enforceable agreement with the mortgagee or the holder of a
491 senior lien under which the tenant's occupancy will not be disturbed as long as the tenant
492 performs the tenant's obligations under the lease;

493 (iii) the mortgagee has consented to the lease, either in a signed record or by the 494 mortgagee's failure to timely object that the lease violated the mortgage; or

495 (iv) the terms of the lease were commercially reasonable at the time the lease was 496 agreed to and the tenant did not know or have reason to know that the lease violated the 497 mortgage.

498 Section 18. Section 78B-21-118 is enacted to read:

499 78B-21-118. Defenses and immunities of receiver.

500 (1) A receiver is entitled to all defenses and immunities provided by law of this state
501 other than this chapter for an act or omission within the scope of the receiver's appointment.

502 (2) A receiver may be sued personally for an act or omission in administering
503 receivership property only with approval of the court that appointed the receiver.

504 Section 19. Section 78B-21-119 is enacted to read:

505 78B-21-119. Interim report of receiver.

506 A receiver may file, or if ordered by the court shall file, an interim report that includes:

507 (1) the activities of the receiver since appointment or a previous report;

508 (2) receipts and disbursements, including a payment made or proposed to be made to a
509 professional engaged by the receiver;

510 (3) receipts and dispositions of receivership property;

511 (4) fees and expenses of the receiver and, if not filed separately, a request for approval
512 of payment of the fees and expenses; and

513 (5) any other information required by the court.

514 Section 20. Section 78B-21-120 is enacted to read:

515 78B-21-120. Notice of appointment -- Claim against receivership -- Distribution to 516 creditors.

517 (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (6), a receiver shall give notice of 518 appointment of the receiver to creditors of the owner by:

519 (a) deposit for delivery through first-class mail or other commercially reasonable 520 delivery method to the last known address of each creditor; and

521 (b) publication as directed by the court.

522 (2) (a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (6), the notice required by

523 Subsection (1) must specify the date by which each creditor holding a claim against the owner

524 that arose before appointment of the receiver must submit the claim to the receiver.

525 (b) The date specified must be at least 90 days after the later of the notice under 526 Subsection (1)(a) or the last publication under Subsection (1)(b).

527 (c) The court may extend the period for submitting the claim.

528 (d) Unless the court orders otherwise, a claim that is not submitted timely is not 529 entitled to a distribution from the receivership.

530 (3) A claim submitted by a creditor under this section must:

531 (a) state the name and address of the creditor;

532 (b) state the amount and basis of the claim;

533 (c) identify any property securing the claim;

534 (d) be signed by the creditor under penalty of perjury; and

535 (e) include a copy of any record on which the claim is based.

536 (4) An assignment by a creditor of a claim against the owner is effective against the 537 receiver only if the assignee gives timely notice of the assignment to the receiver in a signed 538 record.

539 (5) (a) At any time before entry of an order approving a receiver's final report, the 540 receiver may file with the court an objection to a claim of a creditor, stating the basis for the 541 objection.

542 (b) The court shall allow or disallow the claim according to law of this state other than 543 this chapter.

544 (6) If the court concludes that receivership property is likely to be insufficient to satisfy 545 claims of each creditor holding a perfected lien on the property, the court may order that:

546 (a) the receiver need not give notice under Subsection (1) of the appointment to all 547 creditors of the owner, but only such creditors as the court directs; and 548 (b) unsecured creditors need not submit claims under this section.

549 (7) Subject to Section 78B-21-121:

550 (a) a distribution of receivership property to a creditor holding a perfected lien on the 551 property must be made in accordance with the creditor's priority under law of this state other 552 than this chapter; and

553 (b) a distribution of receivership property to a creditor with an allowed unsecured
554 claim must be made as the court directs according to law of this state other than this chapter.

555 Section 21. Section 78B-21-121 is enacted to read:

556 78B-21-121. Fees and expenses.

557 (1) The court may award a receiver from receivership property the reasonable and 558 necessary fees and expenses of performing the duties of the receiver and exercising the powers
559 of the receiver.

560 (2) The court may order one or more of the following to pay the reasonable and 561 necessary fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney fees and costs:

562 (a) a person that requested the appointment of the receiver, if the receivership does not 563 produce sufficient funds to pay the fees and expenses; or

564 (b) a person whose conduct justified or would have justified the appointment of the 565 receiver under Subsection 78B-21-106\(1\)\(a\).

566 Section 22. Section 78B-21-122 is enacted to read:

567 78B-21-122. Removal of receiver -- Replacement -- Termination of receivership.

568 (1) The court may remove a receiver for cause.

569 (2) The court shall replace a receiver that dies, resigns, or is removed.

570 (3) If the court finds that a receiver that resigns or is removed, or the representative of a
571 receiver that is deceased, has accounted fully for and turned over to the successor receiver all
572 receivership property and has filed a report of all receipts and disbursements during the service
573 of the replaced receiver, the replaced receiver is discharged.

574 (4) (a) The court may discharge a receiver and terminate the court's administration of 575 the receivership property if the court finds that appointment of the receiver was improvident or 576 that the circumstances no longer warrant continuation of the receivership.

577 (b) If the court finds that the appointment was sought wrongfully or in bad faith, the 578 court may assess against the person that sought the appointment:

579 (i) the fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney fees and 580 costs; and

581 (ii) actual damages caused by the appointment, including reasonable attorney fees and 582 costs.

583 Section 23. Section 78B-21-123 is enacted to read:

584 78B-21-123. Final report of receiver -- Discharge.

585 (1) On completion of a receiver's duties, the receiver shall file a final report including:

- 586 (a) a description of the activities of the receiver in the conduct of the receivership;
587 (b) a list of receivership property at the commencement of the receivership and any 588 receivership property received during the receivership;
589 (c) a list of disbursements, including payments to professionals engaged by the
590 receiver;
591 (d) a list of dispositions of receivership property;
592 (e) a list of distributions made or proposed to be made from the receivership for 593 creditor claims;
594 (f) if not filed separately, a request for approval of the payment of fees and expenses of 595 the receiver; and

596 (g) any other information required by the court.

597 (2) If the court approves a final report filed under Subsection (1) and the receiver
598 distributes all receivership property, the receiver is discharged.

599 Section 24. Section 78B-21-124 is enacted to read:

600 78B-21-124. Receivership in another state -- Ancillary proceeding.

601 (1) The court may appoint a receiver appointed in another state, or that person's 602 nominee, as an ancillary receiver with respect to property located in this state or subject to the 603 jurisdiction of the court for which a receiver could be appointed under this chapter, if:

604 (a) the person or nominee would be eligible to serve as receiver under Section 605 78B-21-107; and

606 (b) the appointment furthers the person's possession, custody, control, or disposition of 607 property subject to the receivership in the other state.

608 (2) The court may issue an order that gives effect to an order entered in another state
609 appointing or directing a receiver.

610 (3) Unless the court orders otherwise, an ancillary receiver appointed under Subsection
611 (1) has the rights, powers, and duties of a receiver appointed under this chapter.

612 Section 25. Section 78B-21-125 is enacted to read:

613 78B-21-125. Effect of enforcement by mortgagee.

614 (1) A request by a mortgagee for appointment of a receiver, the appointment of a
615 receiver, or application by a mortgagee of receivership property or proceeds to the secured 616 obligation does not:

- 617 (a) make the mortgagee a mortgagee in possession of the real property;
618 (b) make the mortgagee an agent of the owner;
619 (c) constitute an election of remedies that precludes a later action to enforce the 620 secured obligation;
621 (d) make the secured obligation unenforceable;
622 (e) limit any right available to the mortgagee with respect to the secured obligation;
623 (f) constitute an action within the meaning of Section 78B-6-901; or 624 (g) except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2), bar a deficiency judgment pursuant 625 to law of this state other than this chapter governing or relating to a deficiency judgment.

626 (2) If a receiver sells receivership property that pursuant to Subsection 78B-21-116(3)
627 is free and clear of a lien, the ability of a creditor to enforce an obligation that had been secured
628 by the lien is subject to law of the state other than this chapter relating to a deficiency 629 judgment.

630 Section 26. Section 78B-21-126 is enacted to read:

631 78B-21-126. Uniformity of application and construction.

632 In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration shall be given to the need to 633 promote uniformity of the law with respect to the law's subject matter among states that enact 634 it.

635 Section 27. Section 78B-21-127 is enacted to read:

636 78B-21-127. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce
637 Act.

638 This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and 639 National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7001 et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede 640 Section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the 641 notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7003(b).

642 Section 28. Section 78B-21-128 is enacted to read:

643 78B-21-128. Transition.

644 This chapter does not apply to a receivership for which the receiver was appointed
645 before May 9, 2017.

647 78B-21-129. Finality of orders.

648           A court order that is entered pursuant to this chapter and that resolves a discrete factual
649 dispute or legal issue is a final appealable order within the meaning of Utah Rules of Civil 650 Procedure, Rules 54(a), unless expressly stated otherwise in the court order.
