Presented by the

Utah State Bar

Ed Wall has been a mentor for new lawyers in Utah, as well as law students from Utah and Wyoming. Early in the development of the Utah mentor program Ed developed the initial draft for defense attorneys. Ed has coached the West High Mock Trial Team for the last seven years. The team has consistently done well at the Utah State Mock Trial competition, making it to quarter-finals, semi-finals and taking the state championship. The team has also attended the Empire Mock Trial Team in San Francisco, New York City and this year in Chicago. Ed has practiced law for over thirty years and has an active criminal defense practice in state and federal courts in Utah and Wyoming. He also assists gestational carriers with their contracts in their surrogacy journeys.
