invites applications for the position of:
NONPARTISAN LEGISLATIVE ASSOCIATE GENERAL COUNSEL, JOB #34987

PHYSICAL ADDRESS: Utah Legislature
Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel
210 House Building State Capitol Complex
Salt Lake City, UT 84114

CLOSING DATE: Thursday, December 15, 2022

JOB DESCRIPTION:

A legislative associate general counsel for the Utah Legislature is a lawyer who provides nonpartisan legal services to the Utah Legislature under the direction of the Legislature's general counsel. The Legislature's general counsel, deputy general counsel, and a team of 21 other lawyers currently employed as associate general counsels, provide nonpartisan legal services to all 104 members of the Legislature.

The Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel is looking for an attorney who is able to function effectively in a high pressure, fast-paced, political environment and work on legislation that promotes various public policy positions while maintaining objectivity and neutrality.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Under the direction of the general counsel, serve as legal counsel to the Legislature, the majority and minority leadership of the House and Senate, the Legislature's committees, subcommittees, and task forces, individual legislators, each of the Legislature's staff offices and, under certain circumstances, to individual legislative staff members.
- Draft legislative bills, resolutions, substitutes, amendments, legal opinions, contracts, court pleadings, and other legal documents and give advice and counsel regarding those documents to legislative clients.
- Conduct and present legal and policy research and information for, and provide staff services to, legislative committees and individual legislators.
- Perform other duties as required, including: preserving, reviewing, classifying, duplicating, and filing records created or received by the associate general counsel, assisting in correcting, editing, and updating the Utah Code, serving on workgroups and committees within or on behalf of the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel, assisting with contracts, regulatory compliance, and other matters related to in-house counsel functions for the legislative branch, conducting litigation on behalf of the legislative branch and its members, and completing other duties assigned by the director or general counsel.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS:

- Be a current member of the Utah State Bar in good standing.
- Demonstrate familiarity with legislative process.
- Demonstrate proficiency in:
